

Colonel Jill Nelson

Commander, Joint Counter Narco-Terrorism Task Force (JCNTF)

19 February Guest Speaker

Colonel Jill J. Nelson is the Commander of the Arizona National Guard Joint Counter Narco-Terrorism Task Force, the third largest National Guard Counterdrug program in the Nation. She assumed this position on 25 July 2008. In this capacity she directs task force operations for an active duty-status joint organization supporting National Guard drug interdiction and demand reduction efforts throughout the state of Arizona. Colonel Nelson is also the commander of Operation Copper Cactus, the recent deployment of 560 Soldiers and Airmen in support of the Department of Homeland Security, specifically, the Office of Border Patrol and Immigrations and Customs Enforcement.
