

Debra Boehlke

Education Specialist in the Crime, Fraud and Victim Resource Center for Arizona State's Attorney General

15 September Guest Speaker

Debra has a background as a Worldwide Fraud Analyst, and she previously worked on the Governor's staff. She has worked for the Attorney General in the Crime Fraud and Victim Resource Center as an Education Specialist and Community Outreach Project Manager for over 5 years. She serves on the Attorney General's TASKFORCE AGAINST SENIOR ABUSE- TASA.

She is currently on the board with the Arizona Crime Prevention Association, a member of the National Crime Prevention Association, works with the Governor's Council on Aging, the Governor's Alzheimer's Task Force, and is co-chair of the Maricopa Elder Abuse Prevention Alliance Financial Exploitation Committee. She also serves on the board of the YWCA- Maricopa.

Debra specializes in elder issues and works to make the state of Arizona aware of elder abuse and financial frauds taking place today and how we can all work to prevent it, and when we don't prevent it, how we can prosecute it.
