Summer Fun with the Arizona Chapter

Editor's Note: The Arizona Chapter doesn't have regular meetings during the summer, but we do have some activities planned. Read on and make plans to join us for summer get-togethers during the sojourn until our meetings resume in September.

Activity #1

Scottsdale Museum of the West

We have an opportunity to tour the area's newest museum, Scottsdale's Museum of the West, on Friday, July 17. It's entirely new, having opened in January, with great exhibits that tell the story of the Old West through artwork, sculptures and artifacts.

Here are the details:

Where: The museum is located at 3830 N. Marshall Way in the heart of Old Scottsdale with FREE covered parking next door.

Time: Meet at the reception desk at 10 a.m. We will have about a 90-minute tour with a docent and then additional time to roam the museum and the guest shop. Currently, the museum has a special exhibit of paintings and sculptures which depict the exploration of the West by the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

Price: The normal price for military and seniors is $11, but we will receive an additional $1 discount. No advance payment required. Pay at the door. And you can apply your ticket price to an annual membership giving you free admission for a year. Annual membership is only $25, so a couple can get that membership for just $5 more than the $20 individual ticket price.

Following the Tour: Join us for an optional no host lunch at nearby Café Forte, 7032 E. Main St. Great food and great reviews, less than a block away.

If you plan to join us: Contact John Ady, 480-363-8080 (cell) or 480-596-0780 (home) or by e-mail at john.ady80@gmail.com no later than Monday, July 13. Don't send money. Pay at the door. But do let John know you'll be there. He'll coordinate with the museum staff so they are prepared for us.

Activity #2

Diamondbacks vs Reds

Spend a Sunday afternoon at air-conditioned Chase Field on Sunday, August 9, as the Arizona Diamondbacks play the Cincinnati Reds.

We'll sit together as a group in good seats on the second level and get a military discount price of $24 per ticket.

The Diamondbacks are led by slugging All Star First Baseman Paul Goldschmidt and feature a host of young players who approach the game with enthusiasm and energy.

The Reds have their own slugger at first base, Joey Votto, and closer Aroldis Chapman with the 100 MPH fastball.

The game starts at 1:10 p.m., early enough so you won't have to drive home in the dark.

Ticket purchase is required in advance, so look on the next page for information on where to send your check. Tickets must be reserved no later than Wednesday, July 15, in order to make the group ticket purchase with the Diamondbacks. Hope to see you there.

Bonus Activity

Join All MOAA Chapters for More Baseball

The Superstition Mountain Chapter is planning an all-chapter gathering for the Sunday, September 13, D'backs game against the LA Dodgers.

Similar to last year, the group will sit together on the second level. Superstition Mountain will provide a color guard for pre-game ceremonies, and all participating chapters will have a representative accompany the color guard and carry the respective chapter flags.

Game time is 1:10 p.m., ticket price is $20 each.

Because this could be a large group with all nine chapters in the state invited, the Superstition Chapter needs to know by Wednesday, July 15, how many will attend so seats can be reserved. Payment will not be required until August 15, so don't send money now. Just let Jim Cullison know (contact information is above) that you will attend. You'll receive a follow-up contact regarding payment.

Deadline Reminders:

If you plan to attend:

- Museum of the West tour on July 17, let John Ady know by Monday, July 13. Pay admission at the door.
- Diamondbacks baseball game with Arizona Chapter members on August 9, let Jim Cullison know and include payment by July 15.
- Diamondbacks game with all MOAA chapters on September 13, let Jim Cullison know by July 15. Payment not required until August 15.
