

Saturday – January 20th, 2018

“Mistakes University - a revolution in creativity, learning and development.”

Nick Lowery, KC Chiefs Hall of Fame, Nick Lowery Youth Foundation

Nick Lowery transcends any stereotypes. Hall of Fame athlete, Ivy League scholar, 3-time Presidential aide, Author, Poet, Teacher, Philanthropist, he has been featured on ABC’s 20/20, World News Tonight, Nightline with Ted Koppel, HBO, David Letterman twice, Sports Illustrated, the Washington Post and the New York Times. Nick is the first to work for both President George HW Bush and President Bill Clinton in the White House Office of National Service, and became the first pro athlete with a Masters and Fellowship from the Harvard University Kennedy School of Government. Nick was inducted into the Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame in 2009 as the most accurate and prolific field goal kicker in NFL History when he left the National Football League. Nick founded Champions for the Homeless 11 years ago, supporting St. Vincent De Paul’s with 33 special uplifting celebrity volunteer events.

McCormick Ranch Golf Club – Registration must be received by 4PM Tuesday 1/16/18. $25/person. Make check payable to: AZ Chapter MOAA or mail to: Charlie Bitner, 134 E. Northview Ave. Phoenix 85020. (602) 943-0028 or Charles.Bitner@gmail.com